A handwriting practice grid on a piece of paper with a blue grid and a red margin line on the left. The grid consists of four rows and several columns. Each row contains a series of rectangular boxes. On the left side of each row, there is a black arrow pointing to the right. The first row has additional red arrows: one pointing right above the first box, one pointing down on the right side of the first box, and one pointing left below the first box. The second row has a black arrow pointing right on the left side of the first box. The third row has a black arrow pointing right on the left side of the first box. The fourth row has a black arrow pointing right on the left side of the first box. The boxes in each row are connected by thin lines, and the overall structure is designed for tracing and practicing letter formation.
